A meeting of Fort St. James residents was held at the home of Mr. D. H. Hoy to discuss the early erection of a community hall. Mr. J. Delightful Bridge Party

Last week end Mr. W. Corran and Mr. S. W. Cocker entertained a number of ladies and gentlemen at a "bridge" party, a note of which we gave in our last week's issue. The prize winners were as follows: ladies—first prize, Mrs. G. C. Jamieson; second prize, Mrs. D. H. Hoy; hidden number, Mrs. M. McCorkell; booby, Mrs. J. Colborne; special prizes, Mrs. G. W. Sharpe and Mrs. W. H. Dickinson. Gentlemen—first prize, Mr. W. D. Fraser; second prize, Mr. George Hamilton; hidden number, Mr. J. H. Blackey; booby, Mr. G. Oliver; special prize, Mr. D. H. Hoy. At this happy gathering Mr. Hoy spoke on the road to the north, and said Fort St. James would see itself in the midst of the Alaska highway, and in a few years people would find that what appears to be waste land will be occupied by busy mining companies. There is lots of gold in the hills.

Appeal for the British and Foreign Bible Society

The week of November 15 has been chosen for a canvass of this district for the support of the British and Foreign Bible Society. The work of this Society carried on in this country as well as every country in the world, is well worth the support of every Christian man and woman. Through the agency of this Society copies of the Bible are sold at less than cost in almost every known tongue.

Mr. G. T. Murray is president of the local branch and Mrs. J. Finnie is the secretary-treasurer.

Canvassers will call at each home some time during the coming week, and it is sincerely hoped that every home will see fit to give some contribution, no matter how small, in order that Vanderhoof may do its share in helping to carry on this worthy and worth-while work.
