fashion news

BY NANCY GAYLORD

FASHION CONSULTANT TO THE 160 SINGER CENTERS IN CANADA

Pitch a tent in chiffon, crepe or drapery wool. NOT for camping but for dancing. Freely swinging from the shoulders with not a hint of body shaping, then dropping to a rippling bias hem. Anyone can wear it, no matter what shape you're "really" in. Truly a "Quickie" to sew, and as a bonus there are no fitting problems here. Sew brilliant in jade chiffon or dainty in pale apple crepe. Touch a little glitter to throat or hemline.

Sewing chiffon need not be difficult. Cut out on a flat, non-shiny surface with very sharp shears. Make narrow French seams and bias bindings instead of facings. Omit interfacing. To avoid puckering, stitch over tissue paper, which can be ripped away afterwards. Tie thread ends instead of backstitching.

Where there's a shirt, there's a tie . . . long and skinny, fat and dotted, flowered or paisleyed. Wear with shirts sporting long pointed button-down collars and wide, wide cuffs, in spring prints or luminous neon stripes, in voiles and hopsack, silks and perma-press blends.

THE RULE OF THREE. Fabric costs $10? Then with careful style choice and good dressmaking, you can create a dress worth $30. One-third of a garment's value lies in the fabric; one-third in the style and fashion-rightness for you; one-third in the workmanship. Sewing makes dollars and sense!

Zippers zoom in "fly-front" style on pants, slashing diagonally across ski-jackets and boldly bared on raincoats. Zippers are a status symbol in Paris where really good skirts have two short zippers instead of the usual long one. Paris puts zippers in unusual places: off centre if there are no centre seams. Always, always, they are stitched in by hand with tiny picking stitches.
